Ben's practice areas currently include general civil litigation, insurance defense, personal injury litigation, products liability defense, construction litigation, business litigation, zoning and land use law. Ben's experience affords him the confidence and knowledge to protect and advocate his clients' interests.

He has represented hundreds of clients at every level of state court, from General Sessions Court to the Tennessee Supreme Court, and also in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee. Because of the evolving legal system, Ben is a member of several legal organizations including the Knoxville and Tennessee Bar Associations, the Defense Research Institute, Tennessee Defense Lawyers Association, University of Tennessee Alumni Law School Council (2009-2012) and was a 2004 graduate of the International Academy of Defense Counsel's Trial Academy.

Ben is originally from Clintwood, Virginia but moved to Tennessee in 1997 to attend law school at the University of Tennessee. He joined Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP as an associate attorney and later was named a Partner in 2007. Ben is a husband and father and enjoys spending time with his family. He has studied martial arts for over 20 years and enjoys camping, target shooting, and is an avid film buff – his favorite genres being Spaghetti Westerns and Japanese Chambara films.

Ben is always engaged, empathetic, and upfront with his clients. He ensures that he knows the particulars of any issue and how they will impact his clients before formulating a plan.
