Beverly's current practice is quite diverse. Over the years she has represented clients in areas of insurance defense and workers' compensation to conservatorships and construction contract disputes and litigation. She is expanding the scope of her practice to include alternative dispute resolution of conflicts in the areas of construction and health care.

Beverly has spent her entire life living in the East Tennessee area and attended The University of Tennessee. She began her career at Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP as a law clerk, and in 1997, she returned to Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP becoming a partner in 2002. Beverly has been privileged to serve as the firm's managing partner. She has appeared at each level of state court in Tennessee, as well as the U.S. Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee and the Tennessee Department of Labor. Beverly is a Rule 31 certified general civil mediator. She is a member of several legal organizations, including the Knoxville and Tennessee Bar Associations, the Defense Research Institute and the Tennessee Association of Construction Counsel. Beverly has served as a hearing officer for the Civil Service Merit Board as well as an Ombudsman for the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve.

Beverly's husband is a retired member of the military, and they have two children. Besides simply enjoying time with her family, she teaches in her church, plays piano, gardens, and is an avid reader.

Beverly's ability to effectively communicate builds trust and respect, helping create a productive and comfortable atmosphere for her clients. She is an outstanding listener – always able to put people at ease.
