With more than 30 years of experience, Debbie is seasoned in all types of civil matters – general civil litigation, toxic exposure litigation, workers' compensation, products liability, personal injury litigation, insurance, appellate and mediation. She is a knowledgeable, hands-on professional who continues to expand her practice to include alternative dispute resolution of health care conflicts.

Debbie is a Rule 31 listed general civil mediator by the Tennessee Commission on Alternative Dispute Resolution and is on the Federal Court Mediation Panel for the Eastern District of Tennessee. Debbie earned the ANSI-accredited Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) credential through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). She is also a member of the American Healthcare Lawyers Association, the Tennessee Bar Association and the Knoxville Bar Association where she has previously served on the board of governors. She earned her B.S. from Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville followed by her J.D. from the University of Tennessee. Debbie received an AV Martindale-Hubble Law Directory rating and was named to Best Lawyers for Workers' Compensation Law in 2014 and 2015.

Debbie became a partner at Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP in 1989. Away from the office, she enjoys time with her family, dogs, and knitting.

Debbie can quickly assess her clients' situations because of her extensive, varied experience in mediation and litigation. She gives sound, straight-forward advice and is passionate about defending her clients' interest.
