Jason primarily focuses his practice on representing clients in complex real estate and corporate transactions, real estate development, landlord / tenant, as well as zoning and land use. He also represents clients in construction matters and property tax appeals.

Jason is involved in several legal organizations including the Knoxville Bar Association, Tennessee Bar Association, and the Tennessee Association of Construction Counsel. He has arbitrated in front of the American Arbitration Association. In 2014 and 2015, he was named one of Knoxville's Top Attorneys in both Real Estate Finance and Construction Law by CityView Magazine.

Originally from Joplin, Missouri, Jason has lived most of his life in Tennessee. He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1996 with a B.S. and then in 1999 with his J.D. He has worked in-house for a major title insurance company, and for six years, he has served as General Counsel for a prestigious construction and development company in Knoxville. When Jason is away from the office, he enjoys spending time with his family. He loves the outdoors, particularly hiking, fly fishing and hunting. He also volunteers at Helen Ross McNabb and with Mobile Meals.

Jason listens and is always accessible and approachable. He thoroughly prepares documents for his clients with a high attention to detail. Jason's clients always benefit from his vast experience.
