

A professional portrait of a man in a dark grey suit, white shirt, and blue tie, sitting in a brown leather office chair. He is smiling slightly and has his hands clasped in front of him. The background is an office with a window showing a blurred outdoor scene and a green wall with framed documents.

Kevin concentrates his practice in the areas of probate, estate planning, bankruptcy, business litigation, real estate litigation, media law, general civil litigation, and tax law, including preparation of tax returns. As part of his business/civil litigation practice, Kevin has represented clients, both large and small, with all aspects of construction law issues including but not limited to: contract drafting, lien enforcement, lien defense, and breach of contract litigation. As a licensed CPA, his combined background in accountancy and law ensure clients extensive, knowledgeable representation that is customized for each individual case.

Kevin has appeared in numerous levels of state court and is licensed to practice in the U.S. Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee and the U.S. Tax Court. He is a member of the Knoxville and Tennessee Bar Associations and the Knoxville Estate Planning Council.

Kevin is originally from Cherryville, North Carolina and moved to Tennessee in 2004 to attend law school at the University of Tennessee. He joined Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP in 2007. He enjoys spending time with his wife and son, hiking, and mountain biking, making East Tennessee a good place to call home.

Outside of the office, Kevin is an avid tennis player and was privileged to be a member of the 2007 and 2008 U.S.T.A. 8.0 Mixed Doubles National Championship Teams from Knoxville. He also serves on the board of directors for the Greater Knoxville Tennis Association.

Kevin's combined accounting & legal credentials offer a unique perspective. He enjoys using his merged background to help businesses and individuals analyze their situations.
