Bob's practice is concentrated in real estate, bankruptcy, contract and commercial law. Additionally, he writes appellate briefs in the state and federal courts. He has extensive experience in drafting leases, purchase and sale contracts, and entity organizational documents, providing cost effective legal services for his clients.

Bob is a member of the Knoxville and Tennessee Bar Associations and was also named to Best Lawyers in the areas of Business Organizations including LLCs and Partnerships as well as Corporate Law. Bob is a true Renaissance man with an undergraduate degree in architecture and a J.D. both from the University of Tennessee. He joined Frantz, McConnell & Seymour, LLP in 1980, and he has previously served as managing partner.

In addition to his law practice, Bob stays active in the community by volunteering with various non-profits. He is a past President of the Downtown YMCA Board of Directors and continues to serve as general counsel for the YMCA of East Tennessee. His community spirit is further evident by his roles as past president and current board member of the City-Wide Service Club and former director and president of the Fort Loudoun Lake Association. He has also served as counsel to the Junior League of Knoxville and provided legal service for the International Biscuit Festival.

He continues to practice in the areas of real estate, bankruptcy, and commercial law. Bob has written and reviewed contracts of all types for many years. His clients benefit from his well-developed attention to detail, and his ability to dissect even the most complex documents before addressing each and every part.
